COVID-19 4"4·ダ\ハっ込° マ ダベドンも ゆい

Cree Nation of Chisasibi Travel Advisory

The Cree Nation of Chisasibi, the Cree Nation Government and the Public Health Department of the Cree Board of Health and Social Services of James Bay would like to issue the following warnings to travelers leaving our community which is currently the safest place for community members to be:

- a. Non-essential travel, even within Eeyou Istchee, is currently not recommended by all government authorities in Canada;
- b. Travel outside Canada should be avoided at all costs;
- c. People coming back to the community will be required to follow strict protocols.

Travel restrictions and protocols are subject to change as the situation across the country evolves.

COVID-19 4"4·ダ\ハっ込° マ ダベドンも ゆい

Cree Nation of Eastmain Travel Advisory

The Cree Nation of Eastmain, the Cree Nation Government and the Public Health Department of the Cree Board of Health and Social Services of James Bay would like to issue the following warnings to travelers leaving our community which is currently the safest place for community members to be:

- a. Non-essential travel, even within Eeyou Istchee, is currently not recommended by all government authorities in Canada;
- b. Travel outside Canada should be avoided at all costs;
- c. People coming back to the community will be required to follow strict protocols.

Travel restrictions and protocols are subject to change as the situation across the country evolves.

Cree Nation of Mistissini Travel Advisory

The Cree Nation of Mistissini, the Cree Nation Government and the Public Health Department of the Cree Board of Health and Social Services of James Bay would like to issue the following warnings to travelers leaving our community which is currently the safest place for community members to be:

- a. Non-essential travel, even within Eeyou Istchee, is currently not recommended by all government authorities in Canada;
- b. Travel outside Canada should be avoided at all costs;
- c. People coming back to the community will be required to follow strict protocols.

Travel restrictions and protocols are subject to change as the situation across the country evolves.

Cree Nation of Nemaska Travel Advisory

The Cree Nation of Nemaska, the Cree Nation Government and the Public Health Department of the Cree Board of Health and Social Services of James Bay would like to issue the following warnings to travelers leaving our community which is currently the safest place for community members to be:

- a. Non-essential travel, even within Eeyou Istchee, is currently not recommended by all government authorities in Canada;
- b. Travel outside Canada should be avoided at all costs;
- c. People coming back to the community will be required to follow strict protocols.

Travel restrictions and protocols are subject to change as the situation across the country evolves.

COVID-19 4"4·Δ'ΛοΔο 7 ΔάΓλαδι

Cree Nation of Ouje-Bougoumou Travel Advisory

The Cree Nation of Ouje-Bougoumou, the Cree Nation Government and the Public Health Department of the Cree Board of Health and Social Services of James Bay would like to issue the following warnings to travelers leaving our community which is currently the safest place for community members to be:

- a. Non-essential travel, even within Eeyou Istchee, is currently not recommended by all government authorities in Canada;
- b. Travel outside Canada should be avoided at all costs;
- c. People coming back to the community will be required to follow strict protocols.

Travel restrictions and protocols are subject to change as the situation across the country evolves.

Cree Nation of Washaw Sibi Travel Advisory

The Cree Nation of Washaw Sibi, the Cree Nation Government and the Public Health Department of the Cree Board of Health and Social Services of James Bay would like to issue the following warnings to travelers leaving our community which is currently the safest place for community members to be:

- a. Non-essential travel, even within Eeyou Istchee, is currently not recommended by all government authorities in Canada;
- b. Travel outside Canada should be avoided at all costs;
- c. People coming back to the community will be required to follow strict protocols.

Travel restrictions and protocols are subject to change as the situation across the country evolves.

COVID-19 4"4·Δ'\Λ¬'Δ° 7 Δ'\Γ') & Δ'

Cree Nation of Waswanipi Travel Advisory

The Cree Nation of Waswanipi, the Cree Nation Government and the Public Health Department of the Cree Board of Health and Social Services of James Bay would like to issue the following warnings to travelers leaving our community which is currently the safest place for community members to be:

- a. Non-essential travel, even within Eeyou Istchee, is currently not recommended by all government authorities in Canada;
- b. Travel outside Canada should be avoided at all costs;
- c. People coming back to the community will be required to follow strict protocols.

Travel restrictions and protocols are subject to change as the situation across the country evolves.

Cree Nation of Waskaganish Travel Advisory

The Cree Nation of Waskaganish, the Cree Nation Government and the Public Health Department of the Cree Board of Health and Social Services of James Bay would like to issue the following warnings to travelers leaving our community which is currently the safest place for community members to be:

- a. Non-essential travel, even within Eeyou Istchee, is currently not recommended by all government authorities in Canada;
- b. Travel outside Canada should be avoided at all costs;
- c. People coming back to the community will be required to follow strict protocols.

Travel restrictions and protocols are subject to change as the situation across the country evolves.

Cree Nation of Wemindji Travel Advisory

The Cree Nation of Wemindji, the Cree Nation Government and the Public Health Department of the Cree Board of Health and Social Services of James Bay would like to issue the following warnings to travelers leaving our community which is currently the safest place for community members to be:

- a. Non-essential travel, even within Eeyou Istchee, is currently not recommended by all government authorities in Canada;
- b. Travel outside Canada should be avoided at all costs;
- c. People coming back to the community will be required to follow strict protocols.

Travel restrictions and protocols are subject to change as the situation across the country evolves.

Cree Nation of Whapmagoostui Travel Advisory

The Cree Nation of Whapmagoostui, the Cree Nation Government and the Public Health Department of the Cree Board of Health and Social Services of James Bay would like to issue the following warnings to travelers leaving our community which is currently the safest place for community members to be:

- a. Non-essential travel, even within Eeyou Istchee, is currently not recommended by all government authorities in Canada;
- b. Travel outside Canada should be avoided at all costs;
- c. People coming back to the community will be required to follow strict protocols.

Travel restrictions and protocols are subject to change as the situation across the country evolves.