Amendment June, 2008 (Resolution 2008-34)

Cree Nation Government
General By-Law
By-Law #27

3.2 The objects, roles and missions of the CNG are wide and varied and include those set out under the CNG Act, the CNQA, the JBNQA and other legislations and agreements.

Amendment June, 2008 (Resolution 2008-34)

3.3 Under the CNG Act, the objects of the CNG include:

- a) at the request of a Cree village or of a band, to establish, administer and coordinate, on Category I lands, the services or programs established by or for that village or that band;
- b) to give a valid consent, on behalf of the James Bay Crees, where such consent is required pursuant to the JBNQA or pursuant to an Act;
- c) to appoint the representatives of the James Bay Crees on the James Bay Regional Zone Council and, where such representation is provided for, on all other agencies, bodies and entities established pursuant to the JBNQA or an Act;
- d) through the Board of Compensation, to receive, administer, use and invest the compensation contemplated in Division VIII of the CNG Act and the revenues arising from it;
- e) to relieve poverty, promote the general welfare and advance the education of the James Bay Crees, promote the development and means of intervention of the Cree communities and promote civic improvements;
- f) to assist in the undertaking and furtherance of works of charity, education, scientific, artistic or literary culture, youth training, and generally of any social welfare enterprise of the James Bay Crees;
- g) to assist in the organization of recreational centres and public places for sports and amusements;
- h) to grant subsidies to institutions, partnerships or legal persons devoted to the pursuit of the purposes mentioned in paragraphs f) and g) and to bands and Cree villages;
- i) to entrust to non-profit institutions, bands or Cree villages, partnerships or legal persons, the organization and management, on behalf of the CNG, of activities or bodies mentioned in paragraph g) and, for such purpose, make contracts with them and grant them the necessary funds;
- j) to work toward the solution of the problems of the James Bay Crees and, for such purposes, to deal with all governments, public authorities and persons;
- k) to carry out research and provide technical, professional and other assistance to the James Bay Crees;

Cree Nation Government
General By-Law
By-Law #27

- l) to assist the James Bay Crees in the exercise of their rights and in the defence of their interests;
- m) to foster, promote, protect and assist in the preservation of the way of life, the values and the traditions of the James Bay Crees.

Amendment June, 2008 (Resolution 2008-34)

3.4 Pursuant to the amendments to the CNQA contemplated by Part I of chapter 3 of the Federal New Relationship Agreement, the objects of the CNG under the CNQA will include:

- a) to act as a regional government authority on Category IA lands;
- b) to establish minimum regional standards that meet or exceed generally applicable federal and provincial standards with regard to essential sanitation facilities and housing and to regulate the use of buildings on Category IB lands but only to the extent that such buildings are used for the purposes of regional governance;
- c) to use, manage and administer moneys and other assets;
- d) to promote the general welfare of Cree beneficiaries and of the Cree bands;
- e) to promote and preserve the culture, values and traditions of the Cree beneficiaries and the Cree bands.

Amendment June, 2008 (Resolution 2008-34)

3.5 Pursuant to chapter 4 of the Federal New Relationship Agreement, for the term of that Agreement, the CNG also assumes the responsibilities of Canada to the Cree Nation and to the Crees under the following provisions of the JBNQA, but subject to certain conditions as set out in the Federal New Relationship Agreement:

- a) Section 18, regarding Administration of Justice (Crees);
- b) paragraph 24.3.24, sub-paragraph 28.4.1 a) and subsection 28.5, regarding the Cree Trappers' Association ("CTA");

General By-Law
By-Law #27

- n) 28.14: assistance for friendship centres outside communities;
- o) 28.16: construction of access roads for Eastmain, Wemindji and Waskaganish (but not the maintenance of these roads which will continue to be assumed by the governments).

Amendment June, 2008 (Resolution 2008-34)

- 3.7 Many of the obligations of Quebec assumed by the Cree Nation under the Quebec New Relationship Agreement are to be carried out through the CNG.

Amendment June, 2008 (Resolution 2008-34)

- 3.8 Pursuant to Section 19 of the JBNQA as Amendment through Complementary Agreement number 19, the CNG will be establishing under its administration a regional police force called the Eeyou Eenou Police.

Amendment June, 2008 (Resolution 2008-34)

- 3.9 The CNG also assumes many other roles, missions and responsibilities under the JBNQA, legislation and agreements in a variety of matters such as in regard to Cree justice, housing, etc.

Amendment June, 2008 (Resolution 2008-34)

- 3.10 These wide and varied objects, roles and missions are part of the process carried out by the Cree Nation to enhance its inherent self-government powers and authorities.

B. CNG - CREE FIRST NATION GOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS

4. The objects, roles and missions of the CNG must be carried out in close collaboration with the GCC(EI), and resources and responsibilities will be shared between both organization which, though legally distinct, are to operate functionally together.

Amendment June, 2008 (Resolution 2008-34)

5. The local governments hold important governance responsibilities under the CNQA and the Cree Villages and the Naskapi Village Act (R.S.Q., c. V-5.1). The Cree local governments and the CNG are to work closely together in serving the Crees, being understood that services and programs are to be delivered by both levels of government in a coordinated and efficient manner.

Amendment June, 2008 (Resolution 2008-34)

Cree Nation Government
General By-Law
By-Law #27

- 6.1 Conflicting aims and interests will arise among the local governments and the various Cree regional entities. The CNG will play a role to reconcile differing views and reach agreement on collective Cree positions and directions. The CNG will deal with Cree, federal and provincial governments and other institutions to support Cree concerns.

Amendment June, 2008 (Resolution 2008-34)

- 6.2 The CNG represents the Cree Nation as a whole in international organizations and forums, with the governments of Canada and Quebec and their respective departments, and when dealing with promoters and developers which seek to carry out development projects in Cree traditional territory.

Amendment June, 2008 (Resolution 2008-34)

- 6.3 Cree regional entities have a distinct mission to provide and deliver education, health services, social services and other services or programs in the Cree communities. The CNG will work with these entities within the framework of their distinct but important missions.”

Amendment June, 2008 (Resolution 2008-34)

C. CNG/REGIONAL RELATIONS

7. In order to meet Cree Social and Economic Development objectives, all regional entities must apply their resources in a coordinated manner. Moreover, it is important to demonstrate that all local and regional entities work together for the Cree People.
8. While respecting the independence of such entities as the Cree School Board and Cree Board of Health and Social Services, the CNG needs to play a role ensuring joint planning to achieve maximum community benefits from projects and programs.
9. It is particularly important now that Cree interests and positions be clearly and consistently represented and promoted within Cree Society and externally.
10. First of all, representatives to regional boards and committees should have a clear description of their duties and reporting relationships at the time of appointment.

Cree Nation Government
General By-Law
By-Law #27

11. There must be regular briefings and debriefings on agenda items discussed at meetings. With early and thorough information on agenda topics so representatives can consult and act accordingly at meetings.
12. In the interest of reducing administrative costs and staffing, the CNG should attempt to provide certain administrative functions to be shared by it and local Cree entities.
13. To avoid confusion, entities should attempt to have consistent organizational policies on matters such as pensions, benefits, insurance, purchasing and research.

D. CNG DECISION-MAKING STRUCTURE

14. With the CNG's wide range of activities, the Council must concern itself with policy and directional choices, rather than program, project management, administrative and similar issues.
15. This means that Council agenda items must preferably be presented in the form of a description of the issues, an analysis of the facts and upon recommendations and actions to be taken by the Council, supported by an analysis of the facts and options, and the reasons for the recommendations.
16. Council decisions should include specific directives to CNG staff with deadlines to be met, and the meetings of the Council should include discussion of progress on previous decisions, with recommendations for additional action if required.
17. Specific mandates should be directed with specific terms of reference and subject to budget approval and reporting.
18. The Executive Committee and/or the Executive Officers, as the case may be, will be responsible for providing necessary follow-up on the implementation of Council actions and for ensuring reporting of progress.
19. As a matter of policy, Council and Executive Committee meetings should be held in one of the Cree communities, subject to exceptional circumstances.

Cree Nation Government
General By-Law
By-Law #27

By-Law #27

39.5 The quorum for meetings of the Committee of Chiefs is reached if either the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman are present and at least seven (7) Chiefs are also present.

Amendment October, 2005 (Resolution 2005-71)

39.6 Meetings of the Committee of Chiefs shall normally be public. However, the Committee may decide from time to time to hold certain of its meetings in camera.

Amendment October, 2005 (Resolution 2005-71)

39.7 No minutes of record of discussions at the Committee of Chiefs need be taken, but the Chairman shall account to the Council of its activities in accordance with the Act.

Amendment October, 2005 (Resolution 2005-71)

V.b MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

40.1 The Management Committee shall act as a recommending body to the Council and the Executive Committee, in addition to the specific delegated powers outlined in Paragraph 40.12, to ensure effective decision-making within the expanding roles of the CNG.

Amendment October, 2009 (Resolution 2009-50)

40.2 The Management Committee shall be composed of five (5) members.

Amendment October, 2009 (Resolution 2009-50)

40.3 The Executive Director, Director General, Deputy Director General, Treasurer and the Office and Personnel Director shall be members of the Management Committee. The Executive Director shall act as Chairman if he is in attendance.

Amendment October, 2009 (Resolution 2009-50)

40.4 The Management Committee may call upon any and all Directors and Senior Officers to participate in its meetings, when it deems necessary.

- (d) To approve leases by the CNG of immovable and/or movable property for a term of one (1) year or less, insofar as the total value of any such individual lease is greater than $50,000 and up to an amount of $200,000

Amendment October, 2009 (Resolution 2009-50)

40.13 The provisions regarding conflict of interests in the Consolidated By laws of the Cree Nation Government shall be applicable to the Management Committee mutatis mutandis.

VI. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

- 40. No member of the Council or of the Executive Committee shall vote or participate in the discussion of a matter in which he has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest, although he shall still be considered as being present for the purposes of a quorum. Before the discussion of any such matter begins, the said member shall reveal the extent of his interest, and he may participate in dealing with this issue if agreed to by the other members at the meeting.
- 41. He shall also inform the Council or the Executive Committee, as the case may be, forthwith if he subsequently obtains within a reasonable time a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in any contract or arrangement with the CNG in regard to a matter in which he has previously voted.

VII. REMUNERATION OF MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND THE COUNCIL OF THE CREE NATION GOVERNMENT

- 42. The three (3) voting members of the Executive Committee appointed by the Council and the members of the Council are to be remunerated on the basis of a per diem rate of four hundred and twenty five dollars, including seventy-five dollars for meals and incidentals ($425.00, including $75.00) for each day of attendance at the meeting of the Executive Committee or Council, as the case may be, or for doing other business of the Executive Committee or Council, and two hundred and fifty dollars, including seventy-five dollars for meals and incidentals ($250.00, including $75.00) for traveling time to and from meetings and traveling time to and from other meetings on Executive Committee or Council business.
- 43. The Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall not be entitled to the remuneration provided above.

Cree Nation Government
General By-Law
By-Law #27

44. The expenses of the participants above are to be reimbursed in accordance with Employee Regulations adopted from time to time in accordance with this By-law.

VIII. HOLDING OF VOTES BY SECRET BALLOT AT COUNCIL OR MEMBERS MEETINGS

45. The vote at meetings of the Council or members of the CNG must be taken by a show of hands, unless at least five (5) members of the age of majority present demand a vote by secret ballot.
46. This demand may be presented at any time during a meeting, whether or not there has already been a vote taken by a show of hands on the same question.
47. Such demand may be made verbally or by written request submitted to the chairman of the meeting.
48. When such request is received by the chairman of the meeting, he shall notify the meeting that a vote by secret ballot shall then be held with respect to the relevant question to be considered by the members.
49. The meeting shall then appoint a scrutineer or scrutineers to be responsible for the counting of ballots to be cast with respect to such a vote by secret ballot.
50. The appointment of a scrutineer or scrutineers shall take place by resolution of the meeting, and any member of the CNG may act as a scrutineer. Such scrutineer or scrutineers shall not be entitled to vote on the question in issue. Persons who are not members of the CNG may act as scrutineers.
51. Ballots shall be prepared to allow an individual to vote affirmatively or negatively or abstain with respect to the question in issue.
52. Such ballot need not contain the question in issue, although there should be an identifying mark on the ballot inscribed thereon by or on the direction of the scrutineer or scrutineers.
53. Sufficient ballots shall be prepared for those who are in attendance at such meeting, and one ballot shall be given to each voting member.

Cree Nation Government
General By-Law
By-Law #27

54. Any torn or defaced ballots may be replaced by unused ballots by a scrutineer.
55. Appropriate facilities shall be provided to anyone who participates at such a vote if he wishes to mark his ballot in private.
56. The ballots shall then be collected by the scrutineer or the scrutineers and, subject to the supervision of the chairman of the meeting, the ballots shall then be counted.
57. All used, unused, torn and defaced ballots shall also be collected by the scrutineer or scrutineers and shall be kept by the Secretary of the CNG.
58. The final vote as verified by the scrutineer or scrutineers shall then be communicated to the chairman who shall then inform the meeting as to whether or not the resolution has been adopted or rejected.
59. The announcement by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been adopted or rejected by the majority of the votes cast at a vote by secret ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting, and shall be registered in the appropriate minute book of the CNG as such.
60. The ballots used at such a meeting and any other relevant materials shall be kept by the Secretary for a period of one year, and may be consulted by any interested member.
61. The provision of the sections regarding the holding of votes by secret ballot shall apply mutatis mutandis, to meetings of the Executive Committee.

IX. ELECTION REGULATIONS

General

62. When an Election is to be held in accordance with the Act for the positions of Chairman, Vice Chairman or representatives of the Cree communities on the Council, the Returning Officer shall inform the communities using all reasonable means of the holding of such elections, indicating the date, the time and place where the election shall be held, the purposes of the election and any other information required by these regulations.

Cree Nation Government
General By-Law
By-Law #27

Election of representatives on the Council

63. The Chairman and the Vice Chairman of the Council and the representatives of the Cree village corporations are elected from among the members of the age of majority of such corporations, hereinafter referred to as the "voters" the "electors" or the "electorate by secret ballot in which such members participate.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

64. The elections of the representatives of the Cree Village Corporations are held in every corporation in the manner prescribed in the by-law of the council of every such Cree village corporation.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

Application of these Procedures

65. The following procedures shall apply specifically to the election of the Chairman and Vice Chairman. They shall also apply to the election of representatives of the Cree communities only to the extent that there is no conflict with the appropriate election by-laws of the community in which these elections are to be held. In the event of such conflict, the provisions of the said local by-law shall apply to the said elections.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

Nomination Procedures for Chairman and Vice Chairman

66. In order for a person to be eligible for election as Chairman or Vice Chairman, he or she must be an eligible voter and nominated in writing by any ten (10) other eligible voters indicating that they wish the individual to be a candidate for the office.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

67. Such nomination forms shall be witnessed and shall be deposited with the Returning Officer on the date indicated by him for the deposit of such forms.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

68. For each election, an eligible voter may sign only one (1) nomination form for a candidate for the office of Chairman and one for Vice Chairman.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

Cree Nation Government
General By-Law
By-Law #27

69. A candidate must expressly inform the Returning Officer within the time period determined by the Returning Officer whether he accepts the nomination for the position, otherwise his name shall be deleted from the list of candidates. The Returning Officer shall use reasonable efforts to contact the candidates to ascertain their decision.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

Preparations for the Election

70. The Returning Officer shall be responsible for the printing of ballots, the making of arrangement for a suitable location or locations to hold the election poll either within or outside the Cree communities, the making of arrangements for sending and receiving mail-in-ballots and the obtaining of ballot boxes in accordance with the following procedures. He shall also deal with and decide upon all other matters with respect to elections which may not be specifically dealt with herein.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

Ballots

71. The Returning Officer shall cause to be printed a sufficient number of ballots for the poll to be conducted.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

72. Such Ballots shall be in the form of the ballot at Schedule 1 and shall show the candidates for each office in alphabetical order as determined by the Returning Officer. No identification other than the candidates' proper names, and, if applicable, the name by which they are commonly known in the community, shall be shown on the ballot. The ballots shall be numbered consecutively and shall be identical, except for the ballot number.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

Polling Stations

73. The Returning Officer shall ensure that as many ballot boxes as are necessary for the conduct of the election are obtained. Each ballot box shall be constructed of durable material and shall be furnished with a lock to enclose its contents. It must be so construed so that ballots can be deposited therein but cannot be withdrawn without unlocking the box. Each ballot box shall remain locked until the counting of the votes takes place.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

74. The Returning Officer shall secure a suitable location for a polling station in each of the communities of Chisasibi, Eastmain, Mistissini, Nemaska, Oujé-

Bougoumou, Val D'Or, Washa Sibi, Waskaganish, Waswanipi, Wemindji and Whapmagoostui located within the JBNQA Territory, and may establish a polling station in any other place within the province of Quebec (including Ottawa) where the GCC(EI)-CNG maintains offices. No campaign material or activity on behalf of any of the candidates shall be permitted on the day of the election or at an advance poll within or in the vicinity of these locations.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

75. The Returning Officer shall ensure that at each such location, there is a compartment provided for the voters for the purposes of marking their ballot in secrecy. No person other than the voter shall be allowed to enter such compartment or be in a position from which he can see for whom the voter marks his ballot except as prescribed in these Regulations.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

76. The Returning Officer shall also procure an adequate number of similar pens for the voters to mark their ballot.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

Voting Procedure

77. Where an elector requests, the Returning Officer may, in the presence of at least one (1) scrutineer, and either an interpreter or at least one (1) other person of his choice, assist him in marking his ballot and answer such questions as the elector may have in this regard. However, in performing such duties, no Returning Officer, scrutineer, interpreter or such other person shall attempt to influence a voter in his selection of a candidate.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

78. The hours of voting shall be between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. However, the Returning Officer may direct that any poll open earlier than 8:00 a.m. but not earlier than 6:00 a.m., if he considers it expedient to do so and may close at a later time.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

79. The Returning Officer shall be responsible for ensuring that order is maintained at the poll and may request the assistance of a peace officer in order to ensure that the poll is peaceably conducted.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

Cree Nation Government

By-Law #27

80. No person shall cause or attempt to cause any disturbance at a poll or interfere or attempt to interfere with the counting of votes.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

81. Every elector shall be eligible to vote at an election and shall do so by marking the appropriate place on the ballot provided for such purpose with any mark. Such ballot shall have been previously initialed by the Returning Officer.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

82. The Returning Officer shall take the ballot once it has been marked and folded by the elector so that the vote on the ballot cannot be seen, shall verify that it is the ballot which he gave to the elector, and shall request the elector to deposit it in the ballot box.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

83. The Returning Officer shall enter on a list the name of each elector who has voted at his poll and shall keep such list with the ballot boxes under his care until the end of the time fixed for voting.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

84. Any ballot inadvertently damaged by an elector shall be replaced by the Returning Officer and any ballot taken by an elector but not used shall be marked by the Returning Officer with the word "spoiled". All spoiled ballots shall be placed in the ballot box forthwith once they have been remitted to him by an elector.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

85. When the time fixed for voting has ended, the Returning Officer shall deposit the list described above, a list indicating the number of all ballots used in the poll, the number of all spoiled ballots, the number of all unused ballots, and the number of all other ballots placed in the ballot box, and shall keep same safeguarded until the ballots are to be counted.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

Cree Nation Government
General By-Law
By-Law #27

86. The Returning Officer shall not divulge any information received by him with respect to the conduct of the election or the performance of his duties and shall take the following oath of secrecy:

“I _____, swear (or solemnly affirm) that I will not reveal or make known, without being authorized therefore by law, anything whatsoever of which I have taken cognizance in the performance of my duties and affirm that I know of no reason why I cannot act as Returning Officer.”

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

Delay of the Vote

87. In the case of extraordinary circumstances as determined by the Returning Officer, the Returning Officer may declare that the election will not be held or will not be concluded at the time provided, and shall be delayed for a period not exceeding seven (7) days or that any poll will remain open after the hours fixed for voting. In such a case, the provisions herein shall apply to the extent possible to such election.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

88. Where the Returning Officer determines that the regulations respecting the voting procedures, in particular articles 73 to 80, have not been respected at a particular polling station in a manner as to potentially interfere with the election results, the Returning Officer may declare the results of that particular polling station null and void and call for a new polling date for that location as soon as practicably possible. The validity of the election results at other polling stations are not affected, however these results may not be released by the Returning Officer until such time as the vote at re-scheduled polling station has been completed.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

Advance Polls

89. The Returning Officer may provide that advance polls be held with respect to an election.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

90. All such polls shall be held under the supervision of the Returning Officer and shall take place prior to the holding of the principal poll.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

91. Advance polls may be held within or outside the communities no earlier than seven days preceding the voting day. They shall be held between 9:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. on such day, although the Returning Officer has the discretion to extend the hours in appropriate circumstances.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

Mail-in-Ballots

92. Eligible electors who will not be present on the day of the election in one of the communities in which a polling station will be open, and who cannot avail themselves of an advance poll, may request to vote through a mail-in ballot. The Returning Officer shall indicate in the notice of election described at article 1 at what dates and how members of the electorate may apply for a mail-in-ballot.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

93. Upon receiving a duly completed and signed application at least fifteen (15) days prior to the established date for the election, and after verification of the eligibility of the applicant as an elector, the Returning Officer shall enter the name of the elector on a special register and shall send the elector a mail-in-ballot, an inner envelope, an outer envelope, and instructions as to how to cast the ballot by mail.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

94. The Returning Officer shall ensure that the Special Register of those Electors who have requested to vote by mail-in-ballot and to whom a mail-in-ballot has been sent is available at every polling station that is established pursuant to articles 74 and 89 to 91 in order to ensure that only one ballot per elector is used. Any elector to whom a mail-in ballot has been sent by the Returning Officer is no longer eligible to vote at any of the polling stations on the day of the election, and may only exercise his or her vote through the mail-in ballot.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

95. The Returning Officer shall place all mail-in ballots received in a special ballot box to be counted on the day of the election immediately after the time fixed for the closing of the regular polls has ended. Any mail-in-ballots received by the Returning Officer after this period shall be deemed null and void and unused, and shall be destroyed forthwith by the Returning Officer. The elector has the responsibility to ensure that a) his or her application for registration to the mail-in-ballot is made and received within the timeframe specified by the Returning Officer, and b) that the mail-in ballot is received by the Returning Officer prior the close of regular polls on the day of the election.

Attestation of the Vote

96. Any candidate may appoint in writing one (1) scrutineer, to represent him during the counting of the votes and one (1) scrutineer, to sit with the Returning Officer at a poll during the time fixed for voting. All scrutineers appointed by a candidate must be electors of the age of majority.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

97. The Returning Officer, in the presence of any scrutineers appointed by the candidates, shall attend to the counting of the ballots after the time fixed for the holding of the votes has ended, at the time and at the place indicated by him.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

98. In counting the ballots, he shall reject:
- a) every ballot which has not been supplied by him;
 - b) every ballot upon which there appears more than one vote;
 - c) every ballot which has not been initialed by himself or a local Returning Officer;
 - d) every ballot upon which there is a mark or writing by which the voter could be identified; and
 - e) every ballot left blank or which is null owing to the intention of the voter not being clearly shown.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

99. An official election report shall be prepared for the Returning Officer of the results of the election showing the number of votes cast for each candidate, the number of unused ballots, and the number of spoiled or rejected ballots. He shall sign such report and shall request all scrutineers to do the same. Each type of ballot shall be put into separate containers.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

100. The Returning Officer shall forthwith declare the persons elected to office after the counting of the ballots.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

101. If the difference between the number of votes cast for the candidate with the most votes and the number cast for any other candidate is less than 1% of the votes cast and upon the written request of one of the candidates the Returning

Run-Off Election

103. Should no candidate have received fifty per cent (50%) or more of the ballots cast (excluding the spoiled or rejected ballots) for an elected officer, the Returning Officer shall list the names of the two (2) candidates who received the most ballots for that officer. He shall inform each such two (2) candidates of the results of the vote and shall call a run-off election for that officer between these two (2) candidates.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

104. Should the candidate who received the second most ballots cast decline to participate in the run-off election, the Returning Officer shall ask the candidate who received the third most ballots for that officer if he or she wishes to participate in the run-off election. If this candidate accepts, the Returning Officer shall call a run-off election for that officer between this candidate and the candidate who received the most ballots. If this candidate however also declines to participate in the run-off election, the Returning Officer shall in such circumstances declare the candidate who received the most ballots elected for that officer.

By-Law 28 (August 2005)

105. The run-off election shall be held within thirty (30) days of the first election at the date determined by the Returning Officer. The procedures for this run-off election shall be the same as those described in the By-Law except that the electoral list shall be the same as for the first election and no additional candidates shall be accepted.

Every member of the Council (hereinafter "Council member") and every officer of the CNG in exercising his powers and discharging his duties shall act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the CNG and exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.
114. Subject to the foregoing, no Council member or officer shall be liable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other Council member, officer or employee, or for joining in any receipt or other act or conformity, or for any loss, damage or expense happening to the CNG through the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired for or on behalf of the CNG, or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the moneys of the CNG shall be invested, or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency or tortious acts of any person with whom any of the moneys, securities or effects of the CNG shall be deposited, or for any loss occasioned by any error of judgment or oversight on his part, or for any other loss, damage or misfortune which shall happen in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto. Nothing herein, however, shall relieve any Council member or officer from the duty to act in accordance with the Act and other applicable legislation and legal duties.

Indemnity

115. The CNG shall indemnify a Council member or officer, a former Council member or officer, or a person who acts or acted at the CNG's request as a director or officer of a body corporate of which the CNG is or was a shareholder or creditor, and his heirs and legal representatives against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by him in respect of any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which he is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the CNG or such body corporate, if:
- i) he acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the CNG; and
 - ii) in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, he had reasonable grounds for believing that his conduct was lawful.

Insurance

116. The CNG may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of any person referred to above against any liability incurred by him in his capacity as a Council member or officer of the CNG or of another body corporate where he acts or acted in that capacity at the CNG's request.

XII. AWARD OF CONTRACTS

Cree Nation Government
General By-Law
By-Law #27

117. Unless it involves an expenditure of less than $50,000 and subject to any preferential provisions in the James Bay and Northern Quebec Agreement, every contract for the performance of work or the supply of equipment or materials or the providing of services other than professional services shall not be awarded except after a call for tenders.

XIII. BOOKS, RECORDS AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

118. The fiscal year of the CNG begins on the first day of April of each year. However, the Council may, pursuant to a by-law approved at a special general meeting of the members called for this purpose, change the date of the beginning of the fiscal year.

119. The CNG shall cause to be kept proper books of account and proper financial records.

These books of account and financial records shall facilitate a comparison with the budget, as well as with any supplementary budget, and shall include, at least:

- a) all sums of money received and disbursed, and the matters in respect of which the receipts and disbursements took place;
- b) revenues and expenditures;
- c) assets and liabilities; and
- d) all other transactions affecting or which may affect its financial position.

These books and records are accessible to any member of the Board of Compensation and of the Council who wishes to examine them.

120. No resolution or by-law of the Council or of the Executive Committee authorizing or recommending the expenditure of moneys from a fund has effect without a certificate from the Treasurer attesting that there are available moneys for the purposes contemplated by that resolution or by-law subject to Section 132.

XIV. FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

121. The Council shall adopt each year a general balanced budget for the next fiscal year. The Council may, during the fiscal year, adopt by resolution any supplementary budget which it deems necessary.

122. The balanced budget shall indicate the categories of expenditures to be incurred during the year as well as the sources of funding for the overall operations of the CNG.

Cree Nation Government
General By-Law
By-Law #27

123. Supplementary budgets shall be presented to the Council when there are material changes to expenditures or revenues or a significant departure from the budgeted expenditures and revenues for the year.
124. The Treasurer shall prepare reports and table them before each meeting of the Executive Committee and of the Council showing the budget, any substantial amendments thereto and a comparison with the budget approved at the start of each year or any previously approved supplemental budget.
125. The Treasurer may authorize the reallocation of amounts within the general categories of the budget subject to informing the Executive Committee of substantial such changes and their decision as to whether or not this should be reported to the Council for their review.
126. Unexpended appropriations for any year shall be applied as a surplus for the coming year, if possible under existing funding agreements and arrangements, and shall be considered as revenue for the next fiscal year.
127. Deficits incurred in any year shall be considered as expenditures in the next fiscal year.
128. Accounting systems shall be put in place in consultation with the auditors and/or financial consultants of the CNG to ensure that they are consistent with generally accepted accounting principles and reflect the provisions of the Act.
129. Appropriate bank accounts to reflect the activities of the CNG shall be opened through resolutions adopted by the Executive Committee or the Council, but in no case shall an account be opened unless there are at least two signatories to the signing of any cheques on such accounts.
130. Specific provisions shall apply with respect to accounts held "in trust" for various entities or for various purposes in accordance with the terms of reference of the creation of such accounts.
131. The investment of unexpended funds held by the CNG shall be carried-out on a prudent basis, without undue risk of loss and with a reasonable rate of return.
132. No expenditure of the CNG shall be made without the certificate of the Treasurer which can be in the form of a certification and acceptance of the budget or supplementary budget, to the effect that there are sufficient funds to cover such expenses.

133. The CNG may proceed with the borrowing of funds from financial institutions, the giving of guarantees or other financial transactions in accordance with the terms and conditions approved by either the Executive Committee or the Council from time to time.

XV. REMUNERATION FOR ELECTED OFFICIALS OF THE CNG

134. The remuneration and benefits applicable to the Chairman and Vice- Chairman of the CNG shall be those contained in the "Policy Concerning the Benefits Awarded to the Chairman, Grand Chief, Vice-Chairman and Deputy Grand Chief" approved on March 17, 1994 as modified as March 12, 1997.

XVI. AMENDMENTS

135. Subject to the following, amendments may be made to this by-law from time to time by the Council and shall be in effect at the time of such modification or at such other time as specified by the Council, unless otherwise specified in the Act.

Me Paul John Murdoch, Corporate Secretary
